Advances in Australian Football: A Sociological and Applied Science Exploration of the Game

Foreword

About the Authors

Introduction

Section 1: Coaching and the Game Experience

Recent Research Findings in Australian Football by Brain Dawson

Evolution of Australian Football by Kevin Norton

Talent Identification in Australian Football: Integrating Multi-Dimensional Objectivity into Current Practice by Carl Woods

Game Sense Coaching: Developing Thinking Players by Shane Pill

Sports Nutrition Advances in Australian Football by Kathryn Jackson

Section 2: Issues in Sport

Prevention of Violence Against Women in the Australian Sports Entertainment Industry: Disentangling Tensions Between Culture Change and Brand Protection in the AFL by Suzanne Dyson and Julienne Corboz

Many Stories, One Goal: Indigenous Pathways in the AFL by Sean Gorman and Kelly Applebee

Australian Football and Community Engagement: A Collaborative Health Based Approach Between Flinders University and South Adelaide Football Club by Murray Drummond, Claire Drummond and Sam Elliott

Becoming a Star: Life as an Elite Australian Footballer, Identity Construction and Withdrawal from the Spotlight by Deborah Agnew

The Influence of Parents on Junior Australian Football Culture by Sam Elliott and Murray Drummond

Australian Football: Leading Children’s Fundamental Movement and Sporting Skill Development by Timothy Lynch

Footy is for Everybody: Embracing Diversity and Inclusion in Australian Football by Caroline Ellison and John Cranwell

The Roots of Exceptional Performance: Indigenous Players’ Early Development in Australian Football by John Robert Evans and Richard Light